

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 3, 2014

We are pleased to join in recognizing Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day. Each year, on this special occasion, our country recommits to inspiring young people to achieve their dreams.

As a Nation, we must invest in today's students and put them on a path to success. By showing our daughters and sons the value of a good education and helping them discover possibilities in the workplace, we can help expand their vision of opportunity at a key moment in their lives. We firmly believe every child deserves the same chances we had to make our mark and reach our full potential, and we applaud all those dedicated to cultivating tomorrow's leaders.

On Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day, we celebrate the limitless potential of our Nation's youth, and we challenge those in our next generation to dream big and always strive to be their best.
